SPOTLIGHTS

Senior spotlight: Connor Williams

Connor Williams is the son of John and Theresa Williams. Connor has attended Maysville High School for his whole high school career. After high school, he plans to pursue a degree in sports management, marketing, or business. He wishes to attend Oklahoma State University, Oklahoma University, University of Central Oklahoma, East Central University, or Oklahoma Baptist University. Both his mother and father attended East Central University.

The one thing Connor wants everyone to know about him would be that he likes being involved in activities and is a very outgoing person.

Despite his house burning down his sophomore year, he didn't allow it to affect his high school record. One of his favorite academic experiences was when he made a perfect score on one of his state tests. One of his favorite non-academic experiences was winning the district championship in baseball his junior year. He is proud of his baseball accomplishment because “it was the first time that it had ever been done in Maysville history.”

Connor admires Russell Westbrook most because he is a hard worker and is a great athlete.

When people describe Connor, they often say that he is funny, short, athletic, and easy going. Connor would describe himself to others as an outgoing person. He loves to meet new people and he likes to “get out and do stuff.”

When Connor was faced with setbacks, he learns from them. He reacts to setbacks by having a positive attitude.

When his house burned down he tried to keep a positive attitude for his family. He says that he still focuses on the positive things in life even though he was set back by such a terrible thing. When he was faced with this challenge, he learned that you should “never take anything for granted and to always be thankful for what you have.”

In his free time, Connor is usually hanging out with his friends, playing sports, and playing video games. Over the summer, he held a job with the Chickasaw nation and worked. Connor plays basketball, where he is point guard, and he plays baseball, where he can be found playing third base, short stop, and second base. He does not plan to play any sports on the college level.

Connors most important relationships that are most important to him are his family and friends. He says that he always wants to keep his family and friends close to him. That is why the most important factors when choosing a college for Connor, is the distance from home and what the college offers. He plans to stay fairly close to home. He has best contributed to the MHS community by volunteering and lending a helping hand at events. He plans to do the same in the college community.

Connor is a good student and always tries to keep straight A's. He does well in a smaller academic setting, but doesn't mind larger settings as well. He does not like to read for fun. He does not know for sure what he wants to do yet, but his goal is to “just be successful at whatever” he does and be able to provide for his family.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Loaded Red Potatoes

Ingredients:

15 small red potatoes (about 1 1/2 pounds)

5 to 6 slices apple wood-smoked bacon

2 tablespoons unsalted butter, melted

Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper

2 cups shredded sharp Cheddar (about 4 ounces)

1/3 cup creme fraiche

2 tablespoons finely chopped fresh chives

Directions:

- Position a rack in the middle of the oven and preheat the oven to 400 degrees F.
- Pierce the potatoes all over with a fork or the tip of a sharp knife. Place the potatoes directly on the center oven rack and bake until the skins are crispy and a knife easily slides into the potatoes, about 40 minutes. Transfer the potatoes to a wire rack until cool enough to handle, about 10 minutes.
- While the potatoes are cooking, put the bacon slices on a wire rack on a baking sheet and cook until crispy, 30 to 35 minutes. Let cool on the rack, then chop finely.
- Set the oven to broil. Slice each potato in half lengthwise and use a melon baller or small spoon to scoop out the inside flesh, leaving a 1/4-inch rim intact. Set the flesh aside for another use.
- Arrange the potato halves skin-side down on a baking sheet. Brush the exposed insides of the potatoes with the melted butter and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Flip the potatoes and brush with the remaining butter, then flip them back over. Fill each potato with some of the Cheddar and a pinch or 2 of the bacon. Cook until the cheese is bubbly and melted, about minutes.
