NEW TEACHER SPOTLIGHT

Mrs. Jelessa Green has been teaching for 2 full years. Her hobbies include: doing crafts, reading, and swimming. She is married to her wonderful husband, Charles. Mrs. Green has 2 sons, Jared and Jessie, and also 3 daughters by marriage, Karri, Crissy, and Charlette. Mrs. Green hasn't always wanted to be a teacher, in high school she wanted to be an accountant. Mrs. Green has a degree in English/American Sign Language Interpretation. She was very excited to teach at MHS, because the staff was very friendly. Her goal as a teacher is to be the best teacher by constantly learning and adapting.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Sour Cream Chicken Enchiladas

Ingredients:

- 2 cups cream of chicken soup
- 1 cup sour cream
- 1 ½ tsp. chopped onions
- 1 - 4 ounce can mild green chilies drained
- 12 flour tortillas
- ½ cup oil
- 1 ½ pounds cooked chicken breast chopped
- 1 cup shredded cheddar cheese

Instructions:

Combine soup, sour cream, onions, and chilies in a sauce pan for 5 minutes over medium heat, stirring frequently.

Soften tortillas in hot oil in a skillet.

Drain tortillas on paper towel.

Fill each tortilla with a spoonful of chicken and 2 tsp. of soup mixture.

Roll to enclose filling.

Place seam down in a greased 9"x13" baking pan.

Pour remaining soup mixture over enchiladas.

Top with cheese, bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes, or until heated through.

(Makes 6 servings.)
